How can the price be so low?

Why does the Exide Battery cost no more than ordinary batteries? Here is the answer: Exide was the pioneer automobile battery. High quality brought demand, and that meant big production and the economies of manufacture that go with it. Exide is the economical battery for you to buy, because the price is low and the length of service exceptionally long. The price displayed above is for a 13-plate Exide. There are Exide Batteries for every car, some costing more than $16.50 and some costing even less. At Exide dealers everywhere.

MEXICAN KILLED RURAL SHADE COMMUNITY SUNDAY

Considerable excitement caused in and around the community of Rural Shade Sunday morning when the news spread that a Mexican named Marcos Alconto had been killed in the early hours of the morning during a hand to hand combat with another Mexican named Joe Goodman.

According to reports reaching Kerens the trouble started tween Alcontos and Goodman. the exact nature of which is yet un-known. Goodman is said to have shot Alcontos three times with a revolver during the first scuffle and that Alcontos then wrestled with him, and succeeded in taking the weapon away from him, that after he had done this, he then proceeded to best his assalant over the head with it, and to give him a real-old time country whip-

When You Trade Your Car

Ford Owners are continually being approached by automobile salesmen who wish to "accept" Fords as part payment on more expensive cars.

It is perfectly logical that automobile dealers everywhere should be eager to trade with Ford owners. The Ford is the most popular automobile in the world. No other used car is so easy to sell as a used Ford — because everyone has confidence in Ford quality. And it is not expensive to re-condition, since Ford replacement parts are lowest in price.

Most automobiles carry greater discounts to dealers than the Ford — another reason why other dealers may offer the Ford owner a larger trade-in allowance.

But when you come to buy a new car, bear these facts in mind:

Theamount of the trade-in allowance you can get is not the most important thing for you to consider. The big thing is the difference you have to pay. And remember, that the higher priced car will not be so easy to dispose of when you come to trade it in.

If you wish to trade your Ford for a new automobile, stick to the car that you know to be dependable, useful and economical. Go to your Ford dealer!

He will give you a fair and liberal allowance for your present Ford and will gladly arrange payment of the balance to suit your convenience.

When the deal is over, and you haveyour newand improved Ford, you will have the satisfaction of knowing positively that you took advantage of the greatest automobile value the world has ever seen —and saved a lot of money, too.

MILL AND FACTORY INQUIRY SOUGHT BY SENATOR SHEPPARD

Special to the Sun. Washington, March 25.—A resolution calling for a Senatorial investigation of conditions in the cotton, woolen and worsted mills, and other manufacturing establishments in the textile and metal industries, was introduced in the Senate March 20, by Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas. The preamble to the resolution recites that its purpose is to determine what relations the cost of labor in protected industries has to the price of the finished product, and, therefore, to the economic diffi-culties of agriculture" in part,

the resolution reads:
"Resolved, That a Senate committee to be composed of seven members of the Senate, including mmbers of all parties represented in the Senate be appointed by the president of the Senate to visit typical mills of the cotton, woolen, worsted and other textile, aluminum and steel industries of the United States, the mills visited to be designated by the committee, inquire into wages and working conditions by public hearings and otherwise, and report to the Senate not later than December 31, 1926, the expense of such committee, including necessary clerical hire, to be paid out of the contingent funds of the Senate. For County Superintendent. Elsewhere in this issue appears the announcement of J. M. Mc-Clung as a candidate for re-eloc-tion to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction of Navarro county.

During Mr. McClung's incumbency as superintendent his poli-cy has been that of strict economy with the result that at the beginning of the fiscal year 1925-26 practically every school in the county was out of debt with a balance in each fund.

Mr. McClung's experience more than twenty five years as a teacher in the rural schools of Navarro county has given him a broad knowledge of the problems that confront teachers, paren4s and trustees in the government of school affairs and enables him to survey a situation from every angle and render an impartial decis-

m. -Mr. McChing has placed great emphasis on prompt attention to all communicitions. The courtesy and cordiality extended in the office has made every visitor feel that they were welcome and that it was a pleasure and a privilege to serve them.

Mr. MaClung has received requests from every part of the ounty urging him to offer for reelection. It is due to the heart) endorsement and approval of his constituents which include a majority of the teachers that Mr McClung has decided to enter the race. If elected Mr. McClung says that he assures the public a continuation of the same policy that has charactererized his past term.

Question: ns should t buy? I want only ew of the best on the market. Answer: Your choice of breeds will depend upon your reason for ever, it is never wise to select one nerely because someone else admires it. If you keep in mind the three general classes; egg breeds, meat breeds and general purpose breeds, and make your selection rom the class you prefer, you will not be disappointed. To select a neat breed and expect a large uantity of eggs is unreasonable is the meat breeds are rather inlifferent layers and should aised for meat purposes alone.

egg production is your aim. the Leghorn, Ancona or Minorea will please you. These are small, active fowls which fly high, maure quickly and almost refuse to Mt. making sartificial incubation necessary if baby chicks are to be

Should you desire meat, irge, lazy Langshan, Brahma or ochin will outweigh any of the ther breeds and furnish quantity or the table. As layers,, they are dackers, but as sitters, they are persistent. Natural incubation is iot practical, however, as the hens heavy and awkward and break he eggs casily.

If you do not like a white chicken because they can not alvays be kept white, or for some other reason you prefer a differnt color, then you may choose a prown or buff Leghorn and still have the egg producer you desire Question: I can get atch, but my chicks lose thei strength and become sluggish aft er they are several days old. eep food before them all the time but it does not seem to strengthen would you suggest that I do?

Answer: If your chicks strong and vigorous when hatched then their loss of vitality muse be due to improper care or feeding. First make sure that they do not have like. Nothing will chicks more quickly than lice. So dium flouride sprinkled through their feathers will kill them. Five or six pinches will be all that is necessary and will not be an over-ose.

In many cases, small chickens are watched too closely, kept too warm and not allowed enough fresh air and sunlight. Dry ground means a great deal toward keeping the chicks well. Too much neat is just as disastrous as too little heat, but when chicks crowd together they are too cool. Over-eating causes much trou-

If food is placed before the fowls often and allowed to remain only a short time they will not overeat and have digestive disturbances. Oatmeal or hard cooked cornbread crumbled and browned is good for the first feeding. Place it before them five times a day for a short while each time. Skimmed sour milk may be fed. On the tenth day add 10 per cent of hard boiled eggs to the cornbread mixture. In from two to four weeks, gradually reduce the number of times of feeding from five to two times daily. A baby chick that is fed all the sour milk it will eat for the first ten weeks of its life will weight, at least a pound more than one that s not. It should be placed before them several times a day, but like the other food, should be removed after it has remained there for a short while. Never feed anything that is not clean and free from

Question: Is it necessary eed both grit and oyster shell? Answer: Oyster shell helps to make shells for the eggs. If hens lay abundantly they do not con-sume enough lime for the shells and should be given oyster shell Grit plays a different part but i just as essential. It takes the place of teeth in preparing the feed for further digestion. Much food will pass through the bird's body without being absorbed if the food is not digested properly.

200,000 Miles and more

Observe the speedometer of any "used" Willys-Knight, should yours be the rare good fortune to find one available. Nine times out of ten, the mileage registered there is easily twice that of any other used car you may meet with.

The reason for this is the absolutely unique service afforded by the patented Knight sleeve-valve engine in which carbon troubles, valve grinding and all wearing and weakening factors common to the poppet-valve type of engine have been permanently done away with.

The engine of a Willys-Knight is everlasting. It never wears out. Unlike any other motor-mechanism in existence it does not deteriorate. It actually IMPROVES with use. At 100,000 miles and over, a Willys-Knight is a more powerful, more efficient, smoother and quieter car than the day it left the factory. Hence, high mileage totals on "used" Willys - Knights are invari-able, inevitable. Cases without number are on record in which Willys. #### What Is the Home Benefit Association, And Why?

This Association is an organization of home people for the purpose of furnishing protection to its members at the lowest possible cost co-operatively with the mutual protection of all. It is an institution owned by its members where friends and neighbors protect each other in the event of death. It is protection at ACTUAL COST plus actual operating expenses. It operates under a permit from the Insurance Department of the State, under the amended law of 1924.

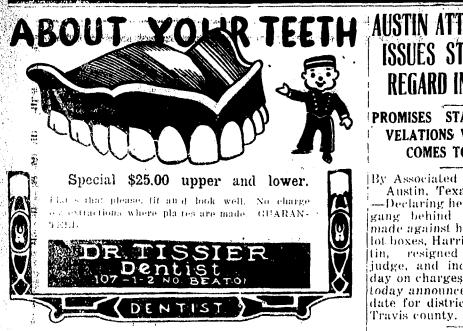

It provides life insurance protection at a cheaper rate than can be bought elsewhere. The cost is based on the actual death rate of its members, plus the operating expenses. Its members consist of carefully selected healthy people on a strictly business basis. Age limit for new members is 16 to 60. No exceptions.

Natural death benefits is $1000.00. In many cases this eliminates the passing of the hat. The assessments are $1.10 on the death of a member and no more. All claims have been paid in full since the organization was completed. The maximum insurance of any one member is $2,000.00. See about the 30 day Special Offer.
